

Hi, I'm Ozlem and I'm from Turkey. _____ (Here / Hear) is my question. Will there still be language _____ (school / schools) in 10 years?

No, I don't think _____ (there / their) will be language schools in 10 years' _____ (time / times). Traditionally, language lessons _____ (taking / took) place in a classroom, students at their _____ (decks / desks) and teachers at the front, but this has changed a great _____ (deal / dealing), hasn't it? I mean, with the COVID in our _____ (lived / lives), now we got used to teaching _____ (an / and) learning online. And there are _____ (not / new) learning management systems that _____ (bring / brings) teachers and students _____ (together / fprever). And the teachers keep _____ (truck / track) of their students, they can _____ (sand / send) materials from those systems as _____ (will / well).

And _____ (seconds / secondly), there are also many great apps _____ (for / of) a language learner. You can _____ (kind / find) many apps out there. And thirdly, you can _____ (also / and so) had a _____ (privately / private) tutor. You can have your private tutor. You can have _____ (your / you're) lessons, however and _____ (whenever / whoever) you like. So, _____ (see / sea) you.
