

Hello, my name is Veronica, and I'm from the United _____ (State / States). My question today is, are tattoos _____ (frown / frowned) upon in your community?

I don't _____ (belief / believe) that tattoos are frowned _____ (upon / up) in my community. As a matter of _____ (fact / facts), I believe that tattoos have become _____ (ever / even) more accepted as the years go _____ (buy / by). Remember _____ (before / back) in the day, it used to be that people with tattoos were looked at _____ (if / as) maybe somebody that had been _____ (at / in) jail or somebody who was _____ (on / in) trouble, or maybe even the _____ (biker / bicyclist). You know, tattoos always had kind of a negative _____ (connection / connotation), but now a lot of people have _____ (tattoos / tattoo) and they see it as something that is _____ (artist / artistic).

They treat their body like a _____ (canvas / canopy), and they're very proud of their tattoos. You _____ (see / seem) a lot of tattoos, especially within the creative _____ (communication / community). People who have jobs that require _____ (creativity / creatively), but even people who work in _____ (regulation / regular) jobs now. They used to make them wear long sleeves or cover _____ (up / over) and now I believe a lot of companies and a lot of _____ (community / communities) are more accepting of tattoos _____ (before / because) they're starting to see that _____ (they're / there) more common and they've become more _____ (acceptable / accept).
